CHAPTER IV THE WORKING RULES OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

Article 14 The Audit Committee of the Board of the Company shall be responsible for reviewing the Company's financial information and its disclosure, supervising and assessing internal and external audit work and internal controls, and exercising the duties of the board of supervisors stipulated in the Company Law and the duties of the Audit Committee stipulated in the Articles of Association.

Article 15 The composition:

- (I) The Audit Committee shall comprise three members, with more than half of independent directors. Members of the Audit Committee are directors who do not hold senior management positions in the Company, and at least one independent director shall be a professional accountant. A professional accountant refers to the individual with extensive accounting knowledge and experience, who acquires this expertise through working as a certified public accountant or auditor or as the financial director or chief accounting officer of a public company, or performing similar functions, or has the experience of internal control and preparing or auditing comparable financial statements, or analyzing the audited financial statements of public companies.
- (II) Members of the Audit Committee shall be nominated by the Chairman, or more than half of the independent directors or more than one-third of the directors, and shall be elected by the Board. A former partner of the external audit firm which is currently responsible for auditing of the Company accounts shall be prohibited from acting as a member of the Audit Committee for a period of two years from the date (whichever is the later) as follows: the date of ceasing to be a partner of the external audit firm; or the date of ceasing to entitle any financial interest in the external audit firm.

- (III) The Audit Committee has one convener (i.e., the Committee chairman, the same below), who is served by an independent director and a member of the committee specializing in accounting affairs, and is responsible for presiding over the Committee; the convener is elected from among the Committee members and is subject to approval by the Board.
- (IV) The Securities Department of the Company is responsible for assisting the Audit Committee with its daily communications and organizing meetings.

Article 16 The following matters shall be submitted to the Board for consideration after being agreed upon by more than half of all members of the Audit Committee:

- (I) The disclosure of financial accounting reports, financial information in periodic reports, and internal control appraisal reports;
- (II) Mainly responsible for giving recommendations to the Board on the appointment, reappointment and removal of external auditor, approving the external auditor's remuneration and employment terms, and handling any issues related to the resignation or dismissal of the auditors;
- (III) Review and monitor the external auditor's independence and objectivity and the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standards, and the Audit Committee shall discuss with the auditor the nature and scope of the audit and reporting obligations before the audit commences;
- (IV) Develop and implement policy on the engagement of an external auditor to supply non-audit services. For this purpose, "external auditor" includes any entity that is under common control, ownership or management with the audit firm or any entity that a reasonable and informed third party knowing all relevant information would reasonably conclude to be part of the audit firm nationally or internationally. The Audit Committee shall report to the Board and make recommendations on any matters where action or improvement is needed;
- (V) The appointment or dismissal of the Financial controller of the Company;
- (VI) Changes in accounting policies, accounting estimates, or corrections of major accounting errors due to reasons other than changes in accounting standards;
- (VII) Monitor integrity of the Company's financial statements and annual report and accounts, interim report and (if to be published) quarterly report, and review significant opinions on financial reporting contained therein. The Committee shall review the following before submitting the relevant statements and reports to the Board:
 - (i) Any changes in accounting policies and practices;
 - (ii) Major judgmental areas;

- (iii) Significant adjustments resulting from audit;
 - (iv) The going concern assumption and any qualifications;
 - (v) Compliance with accounting standards; and
 - (vi) Compliance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules and other legal requirements in relation to financial reporting;
- (VIII) Regarding item (VII):
- (i) The Committee members shall communicate with the Board and senior management. The Committee shall meet with the Company's auditors at least twice a year; and
 - (ii) The Committee shall consider any significant or unusual matters reflected or that need to be reflected in such reports and accounts, and shall also properly take into account any issues raised by the Company's accounting and financial reporting staff, supervisory officers or auditors;
- (IX) Review the Company's financial controls, and (unless there's a separate risk committee under the Board or the Board is responsible for it explicitly) review the Company's risk management and internal control systems;
- (X) Discuss the risk management and internal control systems with management to ensure that the management has performed its duty to establish effective systems. These discussions shall include the adequacy of resources, employees' qualifications and experience in relation to the Company's accounting and financial reporting function, as well as the adequacy of the training program received by employees and related budget;
- (XI) Study major investigation findings on risk management and internal control matters on its own initiative or as delegated by the Board and the management's response to these findings;
- (XII) Where an internal audit function exists, ensure co-ordination between the internal and external auditors, and ensure that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the Company, and its effectiveness has been reviewed and monitored;
- (XIII) Review the Group's financial and accounting policies and practices;
- (XIV) Review the explanatory letter on audit presented by the external auditor to the management, as well as any material queries raised by the auditor to the management in relation to accounting records, financial accounts or control systems and the management's responses;
- (XV) Ensure that the Board will provide a timely response to the issues raised by the external auditor to the management in the explanatory letter on audit;

(XVI) Report to the Board regarding the provisions of the Rules;

(XVII) Study other topics defined by the Board;

(XVIII) Other matters stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, regulations of the CSRC, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, and the Articles of Association.

The Audit Committee holds a meeting at least once a quarter. An extraordinary meeting can be called if proposed by two or more members or if the convener thinks it's necessary. A meeting of the Audit Committee can only be held if more than two-thirds of the members are present.

Article 17 The procedure:

(I) The Securities Department of the Company is responsible for the preliminary preparation for the decision-making of the Audit Committee and providing relevant information:

1. Relevant financial reports of the Company;
2. Work reports from internal and external auditors;
3. External audit contract and related work reports;
4. The Company's disclosure to the public;
5. Audit report on major related-party transactions of the Company;
6. Other related matters.

(II) The Audit Committee reviews report from the internal audit department and other departments, and submits the relevant written resolutions to the Board for discussion:

1. Evaluation, hiring and replacing of external auditors;
2. Whether the Company's internal audit system has been effectively implemented, and whether the Company's financial reports are complete and truthful;
3. Whether the Company's financial reports and other information disclosed externally are objective and truthful, and whether the Company's major related-party transactions comply with relevant laws and regulations;

4. Evaluation of the Company's finance and audit departments (including their heads);
5. Other related matters.

Article 18 The rules of procedure:

- (I) The Audit Committee holds meetings either at the request of the Board or upon the proposal of its members. All members are notified three days before the meeting. The meeting is presided over by the convener, and if the convener is unable to attend, he/she may appoint another member who is an independent director to preside over.
- (II) The meeting of the Audit Committee can only be held if more than two-thirds of the members are present; each member has one vote; any resolutions made at the meeting must be approved by a majority of all committee members.
- (III) The Audit Committee votes either by a show of hands or by ballot; meetings can also be held by correspondence.
- (IV) Relevant personnel from the Securities Department can attend meetings of the Audit Committee, and if necessary, other directors, senior management and financial manager of the Company can also be invited to attend.
- (V) If necessary, the Audit Committee can hire intermediaries to provide professional advice for its decisions, with the costs borne by the Company.
- (VI) The procedures for holding meetings of the Audit Committee, the voting methods and the resolutions passed at the meetings shall be in compliance with relevant laws, regulations, the Articles of Association, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Working Rules.
- (VII) The minutes of the Audit Committee shall be kept, and the committee members attending the meeting shall sign the minutes. The minutes are kept by the Secretary of the Board of Company.
- (VIII) The resolutions passed at and the voting results of the Audit Committee meetings shall be reported to the Board of Company in writing.
- (IX) All the committee members attending the meeting have the obligation to keep the matters discussed thereat confidential and shall not disclose any related information on their own.

CHAPTER V THE WORKING RULES OF THE REMUNERATION AND APPRAISAL COMMITTEE

Article 19 The Remuneration and Appraisal Committee of the Company is responsible for setting the assessment criteria for directors and senior management and carrying out evaluations, as well as formulating and reviewing their compensation policies and plans.

Article 20 The directors mentioned in the Working Rules refer to the directors who receive salaries from the Company, and the senior management refers to the General Manager, deputy general managers, Financial controller, Board Secretary appointed by the Board, and other senior management appointed by the Board at the proposal of the General Manager.
